

The Process of God: For Going from Glory to Glory

Everything God does He does through process, and Process takes you from one level of glory into another. There are five levels in your relationship with God, and at any given season of your life one would be at work whether you realize it or not. If you are going to experience God and grow up into your full inheritance in Christ, you must engage in the process, press-in, and stay with it. The Process of God is to introduce you to life in the spirit. To bridge the gap between your current experience and the abundant life in Christ. It is to help make you aware of your full inheritance in the Kingdom of God and unveil a life beaming with possibilities.
