

Miraculous Interventions in Life

A challenging and exciting read of true-life experiences. Take a peek into Carol's life as she candidly shares moments of her childhood to the present. Carol explains her life's journey from a young child whose life was filled with hopelessness—detailing the trials and victorious experiences. Her childhood was spent in years of rejection, blame and uprooting. After marriage and rural life, there were many more challenges and candid humor. Throughout the manuscript she faces abandonment, near death experiences and betrayal, but clings to the love of her Heavenly Father.

Anyone who has experienced rejection in life will relate to this book. See how God made a miraculous transformation. Carol opens our eyes to see that God is at work in every situation and wants to show us how to see the miraculous interventions in our own journey of life. When the book ends, readers will wish there were more. God - His awesome, loving presence in daily life. Act and think with His authority. Learn to hear God speaking to you personally. Receive promises available. The miraculous happens every day.

After graduation Carol took classes from Moody Bible Institute Correspondence School, Pentecostal Church of God, Rhema Correspondence Bible School and several others. Carol was ordained as a minister with Independent Assemblies of God International, attended two seasons of school at Steve Hurst School of Vocal Ministry and Performance held at Trevecca Bible College in Nashville, Tennessee and received a Doctorate of Theology from West Coast Bible College. Carol and her husband, Robert Ledford, reside in Canyonville, Oregon.
