

Hiding: a novel

Every scar has a story... but Cary Douglas isn't talking. In his family, secrets and lies are a matter of survival. So when the clean-cut new kid at school starts paying attention to Cary, it's a problem. Jon White has a smile the school bully can't stomp out and that Cary can't understand. Jon talks about God like he's standing right next to them, as if it's possible that God notices or cares when the shit is going down. Cary is sure he can't afford to care about one more person, but Jon's persistent kindness is cracking him open. If Cary's secrets start to spill, what will happen to his family... and his friendship with Jon?
