

Religion? No! Jesus? Yes!: 52 Days to Spiritual Transformation

This introduces a carefully designed step-by-step, day-by-day pursuit of Spiritual Transformation. This helps seekers and new believers explore Christian faith like it was when his first followers observed their Lord and Master, learning about spirituality within a personal relationship with Jesus. This contrasts the pre-institutional life and faith of Jesus Christ before the historic church (in every generation, in every form and reform) corrupted the faith of Jesus. Spiritual Transformation calls for an uncompromising, life-long commitment to follow Jesus as our One and Only Life Coach. It requires learning to interpret all the Scriptures in the way Jesus did. This carefully defined pursuit course accents each Discipline or Commandment of Jesus.

The material is shaped for the average person, the unnamed face in the marketplace; Jesus personally called ordinary, working-class men and women to be his first followers. This material has been tested and found to be extremely productive within a variety of contexts: one-on-one disciple-shaping relationships and small groups for seekers or new believers within church fellowships. Any noble pursuit without a means of measuring progress soon loses its effectiveness. One of the most unique features of this material is that it incorporates a Spiritual Transformation Assessment tool. This is usually employed first alone and then with the input and encouragement of spiritual leaders, accountability partners or other friends within the community of faith.
