

Unshakable You: 5 Choices of Emotionally Healthy People

John he hits the nail on the head in addressing one of the most and least talked about subjects depression. Talk about depression is commonly discussed among people today, except among Christians and especially Christian leaders. Its time we get comfortable talking about depression because, regardless of our status, our profession, or our spirituality, the negative affects of depression can be seen in lives, homes, churches, and organizations throughout the world.
