

WHATS IN THE CUPBOARD GRANDDAD?

A childrens mystery adventure, initially set in the year 2000, in Liverpool, where events take four young friends, Ben, Tom, Marg and Harry, back to the year 1900. Bens dads attempt at quick fix decorating reveals a previously hidden cupboard door on the upstairs landing of Bens family house. On Christmas Eve, whilst his parents and granddad are completely unaware of what is taking place, Ben and his three friends succeed in opening the cupboard and go through the doorway to see what is there. It should be a view of Bens garden, but as the door closes behind them, they find themselves in a small Victorian theatre. To their amazement, the man who owns the theatre turns out to be Bens great great grandfather. He explains how they have arrived back with him, but are dismayed to learn that until they help him discover a gang of kidnapers, the four may not re-open the doorway back. The resourceful four overcome many dangers before they succeed, but just as they are about to return through the door, a fire in the theatre almost wrecks their chances of ever getting back. Meanwhile, unlike the rest of his accomplices, the leader of the kidnapers successfully escapes on a ship out of Liverpool. Cheats, it is said do not always prosper and the vessel founders in a hurricane force storm as it is sailing off the Welsh coast. Christmas day 2000 arrives in Bens house, with a long hidden surprise Christmas gift.
