Kickers Picnic Kaper is a fictional story for children ages 4 to 12 about a horse named Kicker. The story reveals consequences involved when the little horse becomes careless due of his failure to follow instructions regarding safety. This story not only gives children views of an unpleasant situation, but also hints of existing resolutions, personal strengths, and triumphs that presently exist within each individual as a result of personal dilemmas.

Hopefully, this adventure of a little horse will help teach children to resolve conflicts, and to move on to the next positive level of decision making. Follow Kicker as he goes through a grieving process to a successful outcome of his adventure.
